The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, March 22, 1764. [N°. 985.]

LONDON, December 12.

WHEN the late unfortunate Hanover Packet Boat, Capt. Harberne, was wrecked in the North-Channel, her Complement of Men was 39, and 11 Gentlemen Paſſengers, out of which only Three of the common Seamen moſt miraculouſly were ſaved. The Tinners on this Occaſion behaved with moſt extraordinary Humanity, and juſtly merit a quite different Character from what has been heretofore aſcribed to them. The Violence of the Sea was ſuch, that though a new Ship, and partly in the Sand, ſhe was in Ten Thouſand Pieces by the next Morning (it being Night when ſhe ſtruck). One Thouſand Guineas are now offered to the Tinners if they can get up the Iron Cheſt of Money, in which are Rewards of 10,000 Moidores; and the private Effects on board this Ship are at the leaſt Computation worth Ten Thouſand Moidores more.

On Saturday came on at Guildhall, before Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt, and a Special Jury of Merchants, the Cauſe wherein Mr. Dryden Leach, the Maſter Printer, taken up for Printing the North-Briton N°. 45. was Plaintiff, and three of the King's Meſſengers Defendants, when a Verdict was given for the Plaintiff in 400 l. Damages, with all Coſts.

Bills of Exceptions are brought in the Twenty Cauſes which have been determined in Favour of the Printers, as alſo in Mr. Wilkes's.

Mr. Alderman Blount, one of the Sheriffs of London, has received a Letter from the Speaker of the Hon. Houſe of Commons, containing the unanimous Thanks of that Houſe, for conducting himſelf (jointly with Mr. Alderman Harley, the other Sheriff) with proper Spirit and Vigour on Saturday Se'nnight, in the Execution of the Order of the Houſes of Parliament for burning the North-Briton, N°. 45. Mr. Harley, the other Sheriff, is a Member of the Houſe of Commons, ſo in that Caſe, unleſs the Gentleman, for whom the Honour is intended, be at a Diſtance, it is uſual for the Speaker to thank viva voce in the Houſe.

Dec. 13. Arrived at Briſtol in 49 Days from the Woods of America, Part of the Ruins of his Majeſty's Second Battalion Royal. This Corps had the Poſt of Honour at the Sieges of Louiſburgh and Ticonderoga, led on by their Captains and Subaltern Officers; they aſſiſted in the Conqueſt of all Canada; exchanged ſome Thruſts with the Savages; were at Martinico; and had a Hand in taking the Havannah, as well as in retaking St. John's Newfoundland.

In Conſequence of the Bills of Exceptions brought in the ſeveral Cauſes which have been determined in Favour of Mr. Wilkes and the Printers, thoſe Cauſes will be re-heard in the Houſe of Lords, the Supreme Court of Judicature.

Dec. 15. The following is the Copy of a Letter from J. Duke, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Honiton.

Rev. Sir, London, Nov. 22, 1763.

"Not having (as I expected) received any Petition or Inſtructions, from my Conſtituents, concerning the Cyder Tax, renders it incumbent on me to acquaint them with what has paſſed ſince the Beginning of this Seſſion relative thereto.—In Obedience to Notice given to all the Members of the Cyder Counties, we met Yeſterday at the King's Arms, in Palace Yard, Weſtminſter, where we made a Propoſition to the following Effect, to wit: To reduce the Compoſition to 2 s. 6 d. a Head, to 3 s. a Hogſhead Duty; or 2 s. a Head, and 4 s. a Hogſhead. The Mode of collecting to be left; and inſtead of Exciſemen, to be collected by the Collectors of the Window Tax, and all Penalties and Forfeitures to be recovered and levied by the Commiſſioners of the Land Tax.

"These are the Outlines of a Plan for a new Act, and to repeal the preſent Act. I own, 'tis my ſincere Wiſh to have the whole Tax taken off (if poſſible) and I really think the Burthen will [illegible] leaſt, if this Compromiſe ſhould be made [illegible] of our ordinary Cyder, at the Price [illegible] (including the Charges of making) [illegible] being adequate to the Duty at the lowe[illegible] ſioned of 3 s. a Hogſhead.

"[illegible] Opinion my Conſtituents ſhall adopt [illegible] intereſting and momentous Affair, will be the Rule of my Conduct. And I beg the Favour of you to lay this Letter before them as ſoon as conveniently you can, and communicate their Sentiments and Commands to,

Reverend Sir,

Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

J. DUKE.

December 15. Saturday Night another Operation was performed on Mr. Wilkes, by cutting and laying the Wound entirely open, when ſeveral more Pieces of the Coat and Waiſtcoat were extracted: Since which, tho' every thing is in a fair Way of doing well, he has been in [illegible] extreme Pain, and reſted very little. [illegible] Night the Wound was dreſſed again.

Extract of a Letter from Holyhead, Dec. 3.

"Thurſday Evening laſt, between four and five o'Clock, the Hampden Packet-Boat, Capt. Owen Taylor, was warping out with little Wind at Eaſt, before he could get far enough into the Bay, a Guſt of Wind at N. E. came on ſo ſudden, and with ſuch Violence, that the Veſſel drove on the Rocks on the South Side of the Harbour, with two Anchors a-head which came home: The Ship has beat out one Side of her Bottom, and the Keel is quite gone. Three Mails which were on board, and a Meſſenger with an Expreſs for the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, were ſafely put on board the Beſsborough Packet.

"Two Paſſengers, in attempting to get a-ſhore in the Boat that brought them on board, were unfortunately drowned; Mr. Kerwin, an Iriſh Gentleman, died on the Deck; Capt. Taylor could not prevail on him to go into the Cabbin; he had been in a declining State of Health ſome Time before; a Boy belonging to the Ship was drowned, and one of the Boatmen. So terrible a Gale of Wind has not been known here for many Years."

The Eſſay on Woman, endeavoured to be fathered upon Mr. Wilkes, is an old Thing, wrote originally in France, and tranſlated into Engliſh, by the Son of a late Archbiſhop, and ſince printed with Notes in the Name of a Right Reverend. It is likewiſe ſaid that a great Perſonage, who has lately been remarkably ſevere upon it, was ſhewn it 7 Years ago at the Beef-Steak Club, and expreſſed the greateſt Admiration of it.

The Elector of Saxony has ſent the following circular Letter to all the Nobles of Poland.

SIR,

"Yeſterday, it pleaſed the Almighty to afflict me with a Blow no leſs terrible than unexpected. He has taken to himſelf the King my Father by a Death eaſy to him, but very cruel for me, who had no Time to prepare myſelf for it. The Grief with which I am juſtly oppreſſed cannot make me forget a Kingdom which was ſo dear to the King my Father and Grandfather, or thoſe faithful Servants who gave them ſo many Proofs of a ſincere Attachment. I feel the irreparable Loſs you have ſuffered; and it would give me the higheſt Conſolation to be able to mitigate it.

"I propoſe to make the Republic an Offer of my Services, and of all the Aſſiſtance that is in my Power to give her, if, by conferring the Crown on me, ſhe will entruſt me with the Reins of Government: And I have all Reaſon to hope, that if the Poliſh Nation be diſpoſed to give me this Mark of their Affection and Confidence, all the Neighbouring Powers will chearfully acquieſce in it. You gave the late King, my Father, ſo many Proofs of your Attachment, that I flatter myſelf that you will ſhew the ſame Affection to me: And I am very ſenſible how much it is in your Power to contribute to procure me the Satisfaction I aſpire after of governing an illuſtrious Nation, which will ever be diſtinguiſhed by its Fidelity and Attachment to their Kings. Be perſuaded that my Gratitude ſhall be in Proportion to the Greatneſs of the Service done me: Of this you can have no doubt, if you do me the Juſtice to believe me animated with the ſame Spirit as my Anceſtors. I pray God to direct the Deliberations of the Republic, and to keep you, Sir, in his holy Protection.

I am, your affectionate Friend,

FREDERICK.

KINGSTON (in Jamaica) December 8.

By a Letter from Black River, on the Muſquito Shore, dated Nov. 11, 1763, we learn, "That the Spaniards are gathering all the Troops, and others fit to bear Arms, from all the Provinces adjacent, under the Command of Don Lewis Diaz Navarre. A Lieutenant Colonel arrived from Guatimala with a Troop of Dragoons, and other Men in Arms, and are rendezvouſed at Truxillo. We are juſt diſpatching a Flag of Truce to Truxillo to enquire into the Truth of this Information, and have ordered all the Muſquito Indians down here, and put ourſelves in arms to act with them, for the Protection of this Settlement.

CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) Feb. 8.

The laſt Letters from Mobille and Penſacola inform us, that the Spaniards of Vera Cruz, &c. aſſert that the French King will very ſoon cede to his Catholick Majeſty the Iſland and Town of New Orleans, with the Country Weſt of the Miſſiſippi, where, however, they have no Settlement. The military Eſtabliſhment at New Orleans, which was, during the laſt Peace, 36 Companies, is now reduced to ſix Companies.

A Ship from the Havannah, with a conſiderable Quantity of Money on board, bound for London, is loſt on the great Bahama Bank.

Feb. 15. Several Traders arrived at Auguſta about the 1ſt inſt. from the Country of the Creeks, who ſay that thoſe Indians who killed the People at Long-Canes ſent one of the Scalps to the Cuſtaws, which was not received by the Indians of that Town. They were endeavouring to get as many of their Relations together as poſſible, in order to proceed to the Settlements, where they may get Plunder when they kill People, for they ſay the Long-Canes People are not worth killing, for they get nothing when they have killed them. Runners were ſent off to call in all the Headmen for Hunting.

Feb. 22. Some of the Catawba Indians, not being ſatisfied with the Adminiſtration of their new King, Col. Ayers, who ſucceeded old King Haigler, are come here to talk about a new one. They have told Charles Garth, Eſq; Agent for this Province in Great-Britain, is appointed King's Agent for Georgia; and that he has renewed his Application to Parliament for Liberty to export Rice directly to Madeira, the Canaries, &c. alſo for a Bounty on Hemp, and for Liberty to bring Salt from Liſbon, a Privilege enjoyed by the Northern Colonies.

A Gentleman arrived from Hiſpaniola informs us, that the French are buſy fortifying that Iſland, and that great Numbers of their Troops are daily carried off by Sickneſs.

It is confidently ſaid in Letters from London, that the French have ceded to the Spaniards New Orleans, and all their Poſſeſſions Weſt of the Miſſiſippi; and are to have in Lieu thereof the Spaniſh Part of Hiſpaniola.

BOSTON, February 27.

At a Meeting of the Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Boſton, on Friday laſt, it was voted unanimouſly, That the Thanks of the Town be given the Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD, for his charitable Care and Pains in collecting a conſiderable Sum of Money in Great-Britain, for the diſtreſſed Sufferers by the great Fire in Boſton, 1760; and a reſpectable Committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Whitefield, to inform him of the Vote, and preſent him with a Copy thereof, which Committee waited upon him accordingly, and received the following Anſwer.

Gentlemen,

THIS Vote of Thanks for ſo ſmall an Inſtance of my Good Will to Boſton, as it was intirely intirely unexpected; quite surprizes me.—Often have I been much concerned, that I could do no more upon such a distressing Occasion.—That the Redeemer may ever preserve the Town from such like melancholy Events, and sanctify their present afflictive Circumstances to the spiritual Welfare of all its Inhabitants, is the hearty Prayer of,

Gentlemen,

Your ready Servant in our common LORD,

GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

NEW-YORK, March 12.

Our Advices from the Frontiers of this Province, received by Way of Express on Thursday last, and by the Albany Post on Saturday, are of as indubitable Authority and Credit, as the Extract we gave in our last relating to the March of 200 Indians, sent out by Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON against the Indian Village of KANESTIO.—These Advices are, That on the 2d Instant, at Night, Sir WILLIAM received an Express by an Indian and a White Man, from the above Party, importing, "That on the Evening of the 26th of February, they had reached the main Branch of the River Susquehanna, on their Way Westward, when they received private Advices, that a large Body of Delawares, our Enemies, were at a small Distance, destined against some of our Settlements; upon which Intelligence our Party immediately made all possible Dispatch to surprize them, which they happily effected, by surrounding them in their Encampment at the Dawn of Day on the 27th. Their Approach was so sudden, that our Enemies could make no Defence, and were made Prisoners to the Number of 41, with their Chief Captain Bull (an Indian) Son of Teedyuscung, a Person who has been in Arms against the English, during all the late Hostilities, having headed many Parties, and discovered great Inveteracy against us. Our Indians immediately bound the Prisoners, and sent them under a strong Escort to Sir WILLIAM, where they were expected a Day or Two after the 3d Instant." [We trust this good Beginning will be followed by some other Successes, and sufficiently prove the Importance they are of in an Indian War, as well as the Judgment of the present GENERAL, who has made use of their Services.]

We are further informed from Albany, that another Party of Indians (said to be about 400) in our Interest, are preparing to go against our tawney coloured Enemies, as soon as the Weather is somewhat more mild:—The Whole set in Motion by the indefatigable Industry of Sir WILLIAM.

By late Accounts from the Havannah we learn, that there are no less than 6000 Regular Troops at that Place; that they are erecting several new Batteries, repairing the Moro, and all the other Fortifications in and about the City; and that the Inhabitants are, as well as the King's Troops, exercised almost every Day in the Week.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.

Last Week two Men were taken up, and committed to the Goal of this City, on Suspicion of robbing Mr. Clifford's House of a Quantity of Plate, and other Things; and upon their Examination such Discoveries were made, that about a Third Part of the Plate, chiefly small, was found in one of their Chests. It is thought there are some others concerned with them, though not yet discovered. And it is also supposed that the same Persons lately robbed the House of Mrs. M'Call, in Walnut-street, of sundry Pieces of Plate, which have since been recovered. The Persons in Custody are said to be a Doctor and Cabinet Maker; the first, we hear, goes by the Name of William Frederick Ousenreed, alias Hendenreed; the last by that of John Brinklow, alias Benson, both Convicts from England into Virginia.

In a Letter from Bethlehem, in Northampton County, of the Third of March, it is said, that on the Sunday before as one John Russell was Hunting near Fort Penn, he was fired on by three Indians; upon which he took to a Tree, where he bravely stood three Fires from each of them, returned as many, and obliged the Savages to make the best of their Way off.—One Shot went thro' his Hat; another thro' the Sleeve of his Coat; and a Third wounded him slightly in the Calf of his Leg. [Russell is Brother to the two Lads, one of which was lately found roasted in a Barn, the other supposed to be murdered, or carried off by the Enemy.]
